Mission of Kazerne Dossin

December 2012 saw the opening of Kazerne Dossin: Memorial, Museum and Documentation Centre on the Holocaust and Human Rights (Mechelen). The museum, which focuses on the Belgian aspect of the Holocaust, uniquely combines Holocaust education on the one hand, and human rights education on the other. The mission statement summarises the objectives of Kazerne Dossin as follows:

'Kazerne Dossin draws on the historical account of the Jewish persecution and the Holocaust from a Belgian perspective to reflect on contemporary phenomena of racism and the exclusion of communities and on discrimination for reasons of origin, faith, belief, colour, sex or sexual orientation. Additionally, Kazerne Dossin seeks to analyse group violence in society as a possible stepping stone to genocides. Thus conceived, this museum makes a fundamental contribution to the educational, social project in which citizenship, democratic resistance and the protection of individual basic freedoms are central.'

How can you help ?

Is Kazerne Dossin's cause close to your heart and would you like to support our activities financially? Then you can help us by making a donation via the Koning Boudewijn Foundation. Donations are tax-deductible from EUR40. Please note that in order for the donations to be tax deductible, nothing can be expected in return.

Would you like to be even more involved in Kazerne Dossin? Besides a donation, you can also become a Friend of the Museum. In our 'Friends range', we offer different formulas with associated benefits.

We are aware that you may see possibilities we have not spotted and we would welcome your ideas. Feel free to phone or email Jana Kerremans, Head of Business Management and Fundraising, who will be delighted to discuss potential partnership arrangements. You can reach her at jana.kerremans@kazernedossin.eu or on 048596 93 63
